

4.3.4: Scenario: Vacation Pals

Consider the following scenario:

A few months ago, your friend started an online friendship with somebody she met on a forum about her favorite sports team. This person claims to be the same age and lives in a different city. Coincidentally, your friend's family is going on vacation to the city where her Internet friend lives. Your friend tells you that she plans to meet her Internet friend in person.

1. What hesitations might you have about your friend's decisions to meet her Internet friend?
 2. What are the potential dangers that your friend may face?
 3. What steps should you take to respond to this situation?
-

Solution Code

```
1 | 1. What hesitations might you have about your friend's decisions to meet
2 |     Sample Response: My friend could be getting herself into a dangerous
3 |
4 | 2. What are the potential dangers that your friend may face?
5 |     Sample Response: The Internet friend may not be the person that they
6 |
7 | 3. What steps should you take to respond to this situation?
8 |     Sample Response: I would try to convince my friend that she should on
```

Starter Code

No starter code.