

4.8.4: Background Colors

In this exercise, you'll use the `style` attribute to add a background color to every tag on the page. You'll be able to see how much space is taken up by each tag, because the entire background for that tag will be colored!

STARTER CODE

The given web page shows an announcement for the Loud 'n' Louder music festival.

The background color for the `<body>` tag has been set to `LightBlue` for you.

YOUR JOB:

Use the `style` attribute to add a background-color to each tag:

- The `<h1>` tag should have a background color of `Chartreuse`
- The `<ul>` tag should have a background color of `Sienna`
- The `<ol>` tag should have a background color of `MediumPurple`
- Each `<h2>` tag should have a background color of `LightYellow`
